To the Community of St Joseph's,

We have had quite a topsy turvy week here at St Joseph's. Thank you to the teachers and students for their flexibility, open mindedness and generosity. Teachers have supported each other by blending classes and lessons or teaching subjects that are not on their regular timetable.

The students have been flexible and open-minded to having their specialist subjects at different times and welcomed different teachers into their learning spaces. This all meant that no one missed out on any part of their learning, including going on their camp. It's weeks like this that make me very proud to be a 'Joey'.

CANBERRA CAMP - PACER REBATE ~ Students from our school have undertaken an educational tour of the national capital this week. Students were given the opportunity to participate in a variety of educational programs with a focus on Australia's history, culture, heritage and democracy.

The Australian Government recognises the importance of all young Australians being able to visit the national capital as part of their Civics and Citizenship education. To assist families in meeting the cost of the camp the Australian Government contributed funding of $45 per student under the Parliament and Civics Education Rebate program towards those costs. The rebate is paid directly to the school upon completion of the camp.

PSG INTERVIEWS ~ PSG Interviews will be held from Tuesday 28th November to Monday 4th December 2023. Google Meet invites have been emailed to the relevant families or parents can choose to attend on site.

3 WAY CHATS ~ 3 Way Chats will be held on Wednesday 6th December 2023, between 1.00pm - 6.00pm. A letter will be emailed next week with more information.

May God bless you and hold you in His loving care,

Sarah Iddles

HOSPITALITY

Our Mercy Value and Sr Austin award focus this week is HOSPITALITY. Sr Mary Austin was a Sister of Mercy and a very special person to the school community here at St Joseph's. She was someone who was very hospitable, she was friendly and always welcoming others into our church and her home.

We can be just like Sr Austin and be hospitable too.
Some ways we can show HOSPITALITY here at St Joseph's are:

- welcome visitors into our school and learning spaces
- greet people (good morning, good afternoon)
- share your knowledge with others
- hold open doors for people coming into a room
- start conversations with people
- share belonging and resources to help others

What are some other ways you think you can show Hospitality this week?

Let's all try and be more hospitable today.

FOUNDATION LEARNING COMMUNITY NEWS

We have been learning about the needs of living things and were delighted to have baby chicks in the classroom to look after. The chicks have now safely gone to the Iddles' farm. Thank you Mr and Mrs Iddles for making this happen.

During Religion, students began learning about Advent. They understand that it is a special time to wait for the birth of Jesus. We look forward to attending our FLC Liturgy at the Church on Thursday 30th November at 9.10am. The students have been working hard on their special parts of the Liturgy and would like to extend an invitation for parents to come along.

As we begin to near the end of the school year, we would like to remind families to have a look for any readers and library books that need to be returned to school in the coming weeks.

ST JOEY'S LOVE LITERACY

Comprehension

How does comprehension contribute to reading success?

Comprehension or understanding what we read is the whole aim of reading. Good readers comprehend in different ways depending on the book, article or website they are reading. Some of the ways readers comprehend include:

- Predicting before reading and as they read
- Making connections between what is being read and the reader's past experience of books, life and the world
- Asking questions about what is 'being read'. What is the character going to do in this situation? Why did that character do that?
- Monitoring meaning, checking predications, confirming them, correcting them, re-predicting and re-reading
- Creating a mental summary of key parts of the story or information
- Creating a mental picture of the characters and setting
- Inferring, interpreting and reading 'between the lines'
- Considering the text's purpose. Why did the author write this book?

How can families encourage comprehension at home?

To help children to see that the aim of reading is meaning, to make reading together for lots of different purposes then discuss and reflect on the things you read together. Comprehension shouldn't be forced, it should come naturally from reading.

- Share your response to a book read together with your child, for example: I liked the part when... What did you like? I was surprised by the part when... What surprised you?
- Talk about other books or experiences that you are reminded of when reading aloud. You could say: This is like that other book we read about... That part of the story reminded me of when we went to visit Grandma.
- Pause and predict at interesting points in a story, when reading aloud, for example: Oh, that's an interesting situation, I wonder what the character is going to do now? How do you think that character is feeling right now? What might happen next?
